IMTA Website

Terms
Drawing up a contract with a new supplier? Refer to IMTA's Terms of Trade, listed in full here, and incorporate the ones that best suit your planned transactions.

News
Archive: Looking to find as much information as possible on a particular topic? Wanting to track a news story over time? We have an archive of past news stories about the meat trade, grouped by species or theme.
You can also use the search bar on the News page to search through live and archived articles by key word.

Import/Export
Exporting: Hoping to move into a new market? A list of currently available Export Health Certificates can be found here.
Importing: Looking to expand your sources for meat imports? A list of countries approved to export to the European Union is available here.

Customs Exchange Rate
Importing at full duty? Want to know what the price in euros means in pounds sterling? Find the latest monthly Customs Exchange Rates here.

Quota Information
Want to find out the regulation number for a specific quota? Here you can find an overview of all the quotas available in the meat sector.

IMTA Calendar
Have an issue you would like IMTA to raise with the authorities? Want to know what upcoming events you can get involved in? Consult the IMTA Calendar. Members are welcome to attend any events coloured blue.

Key Organisations Tab
Rural Payments Agency (RPA): Would you like to find Notices to Traders more easily than on the gov.uk website? IMTA maintains an archive of these for easy reference.
Food Standards Agency (FSA): Want to know how to undertake a business appeal? Looking for guidance on food labelling? Information on both can be found here.
Standards/Accreditations: Need to find information about industry standards such as BRC or ISO? IMTA provides links for some of the most popular standards.
HMRC: Looking for Customs Information Papers? Thinking of applying for AEO status? Find related documents and articles here.

Useful Links tab
Need to find information on EU and UK regulations? Searching for official reports on production, markets etc. in a particular country? The IMTA Useful Links page allows you to quickly access relevant web pages from the European Commission, USDA and many others.

Can't find what you are looking for? Get in touch with the IMTA Secretariat and we will assist you. Feedback on the website is always welcome. We aim to continue to develop it as a valuable resource for IMTA members.
